A Young Railroader Confesses a Defalcation and Prevents His Promotion.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 17.—Robt. Laughlin, superintendent of the Saginaw Tuscalo and Huron railway, tendered his resignation Saturday; the same to take effect Sept. 30. Informal talk as to his probable successor brought prominently forward the name of Chas. M. Rice, auditor and general freight and passenger agent of the road, a young man who has worked up from an inferior position and in whom unlimited confidence had been placed.

Yesterday morning, realizing that the change contemplated would result in the election of another auditor and an exposure of his books, Rice confessed to a defaulcation of $8,000.

Rice gives no explanation of his conduct only admitting he needed the money and took it, expecting to return it in the future. He has a wife and one child, and is not extravagant in his habits.

CAN'T BE A BRIGAND.

Mrs. Jessie Bond Fails to Secure a Position in "The Brigand Company"—Her Dinners to the "Profession."

THE SENTINEL yesterday gave considerable space to Mrs. Hugh McCullough Bond. To-day it gives a new chapter in her theatrical career, and we let the New York World tell the story in its own way:

Miss Lillian Russell ordered a carriage at the Hotel Metropole yesterday afternoon and was driven to the Grand Central depot, whither a vast amount of theatrical baggage had preceded her. She took the 4 o'clock train for Boston, and at about the same hour the other members of "The Brigands" company embarked on a Fall River boat for the same place. Neither on the Boston boat nor on the Boston train was there any one of the name of Bond who was going on the road with "The Brigands" company in the expectation of eventually superseding Miss Russell.

But in room 25, Hotel Metropole, which she has occupied with her husband for ten days past, was Mrs. Jessie Hanna Bond, who was quoted in a morning paper yesterday as saying that she was going to Boston as a member of Mr. Aronson's company.

In answer to the card of a World reporter, she begged to be excused. At least half a dozen other newspaper representatives got the same answer. A note addressed to Mr. Hugh McCulloch Bond, her husband, was answered as follows:

"I have nothing whatever to say in regard to the matter."

At the Casino "The Drum Major" was in rehearsal. Between the acts Charles Barton, business manager for Mr. Aronson, told as much as he knew, or was willing to tell, regarding the difference of opinion which seems to exist between the Casino management and Mrs. Bond.

"Mrs. Bond has never been engaged by Mr. Aronson," he said. "She certainly is not going to play Miss Russell's part in 'The Brigands.' I have telegraphed to our agent at Boston to deny the story if it is published there, and that if these people appear at the theater to refuse them admission except on the presentation of tickets."

Mr. Barton said some other things, which gave the impression that an account from Mrs. Bond's own lips of her experiences since she came here a year ago to get on the stage would not be without interest. It appears that one day several months ago Mrs. Bond called at the Casino, made known her desire to go on the stage and asked to have her voice tried. Her voice was tried. She was not given an engagement on the spot to play a principal part, but a gentleman in the office very obligingly took down her name and address. Mrs. Bond saw him write it in a large book; but she did not know that that book contained what professionals execrate as the "suspense list."

Mrs. Bond was very anxious to go upon the stage. She studied and practised several hours every day, and cultivated the friendship of prominent members of the profession. She took a flat at No. 229 West Forty-third street, on the floor above that occupied by Miss Russell, and the impression became prevalent in the neighborhood that when Mrs. Bond made her debut Miss Russell would thereafter languish in the deep shade. Well known profession people were frequent visitors at the flat of Mrs. Bond and her husband. It is understood that their wines were excellent and their cook above reproach. Sometimes the prominent professionals reciprocated by contributing a box at the opera.

Mrs. Bond's aspirations did not become oppressive to the Casino management until, as the end of "The Brigand's" run approached, people began to inquire, as they bought their tickets at the box office, whether this was the night of Mrs. Bond's first appearance in Miss Russell's part. The situation became still more serious when it was reported to the Casino management that Mrs. Bond had purchased several trunks full of wigs and other things needed by shapely prime donne.

At the Hotel Metropole Mr. and Mrs. Bond are much respected. Mrs. Bond draws large checks at the Fifth Avenue bank, and pays all bills promptly.

"It is true," said the clerk, "that they have a good many friends in the theatrical profession who call on them frequently, but sometimes stop here. They can't be going to Boston to-day, for they haven't given up their room nor made any preparation to leave. Perhaps they are playing a big joke on Aronson."

Other attaches of the hotel have understood all along that Mrs. Bond was an actress, who was to join her company some time in September. Her expectations in regard to the Casino company have been the subject of comment among professional people for some time, but this will probably inform the lady for the first time that enrollment on the "suspense list" is not equivalent to an engagement.

THERE is a stone elephant in Inyo County, California. The rock that has taken the form of an elephant is a dark gray granite that is almost the color of the skin of an elephant. The first travelers in California, it is said, on catching sight of it, thought that they had found a petrified mastodon. A Piute Indian, on being asked if he had ever seen the "stone elephant," replied, "Yash, me see him many year 'go. Long time Injun no sabe him; now see him all same in big show up Virginy City."

In 1863, he was employed in the drug store of Jesse Davis. In 1864, he went to Tiffin, Ohio, where, for several years he was a student in Heidelberg college. Returning to Huntington in 1868-9, he entered into business. He was married in 1873 to Miss Theressa Hegner. Fort Wayne Sentinel.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 17, 1889.

THIS is overcoat weather.

THE king of Holland is seriously ill.

WHO will be commissioner of pensions?

THE summer has only three more days to live.

FORT WAYNE is to have another Sunday newspaper.

NATURAL gas will be the fuel of the future in Fort Wayne.

JOHN M. LANGSTON, the eloquent colored politician of Virginia, is going to Ohio to stump the state for Foraker.

THE successor of Hon. S. S. Cox in congress from the New York district, it is thought, will be Daniel Dougherty, Carl Schurz or Ex-mayor Hewitt.

FORT WAYNE bobs up with a sensation pretty often. Our newspaper reporters are enterprising and hunt the news. They do not wait for the news to hunt them.

THE portraits of Generals Grant, Sherman, and Sheridan, which were painted by direction of Mr. George W. Childs for the United States military academy, will be formally transferred to that institution October 3.

MRS. HELEN M. GOUGAR remarks that there is not a newspaper in this country to-day that supports high license that is not bribed to do so by the National Liquor league. Helen seems to think that the opinions of editors are purchasable.

THERE are seven drug stores in Kokomo, and the proprietors have entered into an agreement by which only one of the number remains open Sunday, each taking its turn in this respect. By this method the employes are only on duty one Sunday out of seven.

THE Mackie-Falker escapade is one that has a moral, but moralizing seems to do little good. People see the mistakes of others almost every day and yet they rush headlong into them to repent their folly afterwards. Two lives blighted and other hearts wrung with sorrow—this is the result of the scandal.

THE state board of mine examiners has finished its work and given certificates of competency to the following persons: Walter Rutledge, of Alton; James Freer, of Peoria; Quinton Clark, of Braidwood; James Taylor, of Ashley; Thomas Hudson, of Galva; John Keay, of LaSalle, and Elisha Beadle, of Kewanee. The five persons named will be recommended for mine inspectors.

WHEN Sunset Cox was in Detroit the latter part of June he gave a bright, entertaining talk, in which he said: "My health is good again, and now that I am out of ambitious politics I intend to enjoy life and live to be old. I can't wear out. There is no sense in rushing to your grave, and I propose to take my time to it." He then seemed in the best of spirits and chaffed sarcastically at his confreres in congress as if he expected them to shorten their lives by overexertion while he was growing old gracefully, "I am now studying machinery," he said: "the great industrial and mechanical progress of to-day has a wonderful fascination for me."

THE American brewers have projected a gigantic syndicate or pool to protect themselves against the encroachments of the English beer syndicate. Mr. Charles Merkel, of New York, vice president of the Kraus-Merkel Malting company, in an interview said: "There will be formed a gigantic stock company that will buy up or control all the more important breweries of the country. Its capital stock will be $100,000,000. The brewers of St. Louis have already organized to this end, and are ready to join the combine. The important brewing centers, New York, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, New Orleans and Kansas City, will be visited and brought into the scheme."

ENEASY EUROPE.

Fred Raine, lately consul-general at Berlin, who has recently returned from Europe, in speaking of affairs on the continent, said that he does not think a war imminent, but believes that the smaller spark may at any moment cause a disastrous conflagration. The conservatives of France and Germany do not desire war, he say, but Russia's ambition and pan-Slavistic agitation may lead to it at any moment. Mr. Raine entertains the opinion that France and Germany should be friends instead of enemies, as he considers Russia and the semi-barbarian elements under the scepter of the czar the dangerous antagonists of both. With the Russians war means the ascendency of autocratic ideas, the death knell of republicanism and constitutional government. The thinking men of France are not blind to the objects of Russia, and show but little inclination to encourage the cry of revenge against Germany, rather believing that sooner or later something may turn up to establish an entente cordiale between Germany and France.

Mr. Raine fears that the immense war preparations of all Europe, and the tremendous cost of armament and consequent taxation may lead to exhaustion and an appeal to arms precipitating war against the wishes of all true friends of progress and civilization.

FUN AT THE FAIR.

Library Hall Event Attracting Big Crowds and the Interest Increases.

The Library hall fair had a splendid patronage last night, notwithstanding it was "Blue" Monday.

The visitors at the Young Ladies Sodality booth cannot help noticing the beautiful life like portraits of Fathers Brammer, O'Leary and Delaney, Father Brammer's being an oil portrait by the Sisters of Providence.

There is on exhibition at the rosary table a piece of art obtained by Father Lang at Trieste, Austria, during his late visit in Europe.

The hall will be thrown open to the school children to-morrow afternoon. The Mandolin orchestra will be there and it will be a treat for the children.

The children from St. Vincent's orphan asylum will attend by special invitation.

The booths all did a thriving business.

Owing to the great amount of work devolving on the voting committee, the following gentlemen have been added: Charles Sosenheimer, John Brannan, Capt. J. H. Rohan, A. F. Glutting, L. Gocke and T. Houlihan, who at once entered upon their duties.

The public school children are invited to attend a special concert Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Rudolph Bensman holding No. 48, drew a basket of fruit.

Mr. Charles Sosenheimer, our clever city treasurer, is doing honors on the voting committee.

Sig. E. Garci with the violin, and Sig. E. Calamara with the guitar, of the orchestra, played some difficult selections and were heartily applauded.

Mrs. H. S. Harod drew an elegant basket of flowers, holding No. 11.

A contest for a gold watch opened last night with the following contestants: Mary Connors, Agnes Baker, Alice Furste, Maggie Cranston, Katy O'Brien, Maggie Gaffney and Ella Donahue. This contest will close Monday evening at 11 o'clock.

The contest for the road wagon closed last night as follows: Charles Hilton, 141½; Rudolph Bensman, 16; F. M. Dunham, 35; Barney Fitzpatrick, 31½; Frank Tyrell, 55.

Mr. Will McKinnie, holding No. 28, drew an imported bust, representing winter, valued at $25, from the rosary tables.

The mandolin orchestra won more laurels. Master Harry Diamond, the boy musician, played some very difficult selections on the violin, and so enraptured the audience that while he was playing you could hear a pin drop on the floor. He was accompanied on the piano by Mr. George Jacobs, of the City band. This novel orchestra will be heard all of this week.

THERE is not near so much British money going into American breweries as might be supposed. The object of the whole thing is a trap to draw in American capital. Our foreign neighbors in a game of this kind are quite as shrewd as the heathen Chinese in a game of cards. Let them alone and Americans will beat them all the time in the beer business.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SCANLAN'S NEW PLAY.

The First Presentation in this City of Myles Aroon by the Famous Bellmeader.

Scanlan, with his laughing eyes, his pleasant smile and good nature will present his new play at the Temple tonight. The play is original in theme and treatment, developing Mr. Scanlan's capabilities for illustrating a noble minded and heroic son of the Emerald Isle, with natural vocal attainments of the loftiest and most sentimental type. The scene is laid in County Westmeath, Ireland, at the present day; the hero is a merry and worthy young Irish gardener, and the plot brings on the efforts of his gardener, Myles Aroon, to clear his character of a stain which has been cast upon it by an unscrupulous Irish adventurer. In the jolly and genial Myles, with his light-hearted gayety and steady flow of wit, Mr. Scanlan found a congenial representation. He introduces many novelties in the way of business, and sings the following new songs which he composed for this play: "Swing Song," "You and I, Love," "My Maggie," and "Oh, Live, My Love, Oh Live." He also gives, by particular request, Sam Lover's Irish comic ditty, "Tis a Bit of a Thing," and his own "Peek-a-Boo."

The play is set with new, beautiful and elaborate scenery, painted by Charles Witham. One set showing the illuminated interior of a conservatory, with parlors and a fountain of real water, is especially realistic.

of good health is found in the regular movement of the bowels and perfect action of the liver. These organs were intended by nature to remove from the system all impurities. If you are constipated you offer a "standing invitation" to a whole family of diseases and irregularities which will surely be "accepted," and you will have guests unwelcome and determined. All these unpleasant conditions may be averted by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Powerful for the effectual regulation of the bowels and liver, establishing a healthy action of the entire wonderful organism with which we are created.

The original cost of the right-of-way of the Mount Washington Incline railroad—a road that has proved to be a gold mine to its owners—was only $90.

"I WANT WORK."

An Insane Man Found Near the Wabash Track With a Card Bearing These Words—Echoes of the Ball.

For nearly a week passengers on the Wabash have noticed an illy-clad man wandering in the woods along the railroad track between Whitehouse and Neapolis, but thinking he was a tramp, no attention was paid to him, until Sunday he was seen lying in a fence corner.

A party of men went out to him and found him nearly frozen and famished, gnawing on an ear of corn that he had almost shelled with his teeth. He was taken to Toledo and placed in the jail, where by careful nursing he is recovering, but is still very weak. He was quite violent at first, but rests easier now. He was very poorly clad in ragged clothes, and bore a card in his hand on which was written, "I want work."

He is about forty-five years of age, and gives his name as Martin Fea. He makes conflicting statements as to his home, claiming Austin, Texas, Kendallville, Ind., and other places. He will speak only at intervals, but will write anything he is asked, and does so in a beautiful Spencerian hand. He says he is a bookkeeper, and his soft hands are evidence that he has never labored for a living. Sheriff Harbeck is making an effort to find out where he belongs, and thinks it likely he has escaped from some asylum and wandered where he was found.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

The Pittsburg pay-car is in the city to-day.

Thursday is Wabash payday and Saturday payday at the Electric Light works.

Foreman J. J. Stier, of the Bass works, is off duty on account of the death of his little daughter.

Harry Hayes, machinist at the Bass works, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to set up an engine for his firm.

F. P. Copper, traveling passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was in the city last evening.

Col. Dick Thompson, passenger agent of the Wabash, has returned from St. Louis, where he was attending the great exposition.

General Manager G. W. Saul, General Freight Agent Wikel, and General Ticket Agent Fisher made a tour over the Muncie yesterday.

The Fort Wayne Furniture company has struck it rich in a new combination folding bed, the patent of which has been recently acquired.

Vice-president J. D. Olds, Capt. Ferd Boltz and Foreman William Smith, of the Olds wheel works, went to Petoskey this afternoon for a several day's fish.

The S. M. Foster factory is adding several new lines of manufacture to its business, among which are men's pants, overalls, firemen's jackets, flannel shirts, etc.

The Wabash is selling reduced rate tickets to Huntington, until the 21st, on account of the fair in progress there, and is also giving excursion rates to Detroit until the 27th on account of the International exposition.

The Pennsylvania company on Saturday completed the fine railroad bridge over the Ohio river at Steubenville. The bridge consists of seven open spans, each 232 feet long, and one channel span 312 feet long, making the bridge 1,936 feet in length from abutment to abutment.

The shops of the Pennsylvania company, at Altoona, in the month of August, turned out more work than in any month since they were established. Over 4,000 cars were rebuilt, and 500 new ones turned out, and this month work is being pushed to the utmost capacity of the shops.

It is stated in Pittsburg railway circles that J. N. McCullough, first vice president of the Pensylvania company, will be elected a director of the Pennsylvania road to fill a vacancy caused by the death of William Thaw. This has been decided upon, and it is stated by those high in railroad authority that Mr. McCullough will accept.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg and of the Vandalia, has undertaken to bring about a conference of the general passenger agents of lines east of the Missouri river, with a view to the formation of an association, organized on such a basis that every important line will have a representative member. The associations are too numerous now, and the plans on which they are operated too varied to do effective work, especially in the fixing and maintaining of rates. A number of general managers and general passenger agents have communicated with Mr. Ford in reference to the matter, and all favor the proposition.

WESTERN RAILROADING.

"Speedwell!" yelled the Western Railway Superintendent to his assistant, "I see by these dispatches that the overland flyer No. 2 is snow-bound at North Fork."

"Yes, sir" was the brisk reply, "I've ordered out the snow-plows."

"Very good. Telegraph the crew that as soon as they open the road I want to carry a train load of snow to South Pass and dump it on the track. The rails there are melting with heat."—New York Weekly.

THE BOY WHO WAS HIS OWN GRANDFATHER.

There was a widow and her daughter-in-law, and a man and his son. The widow married the son, and the daughter married the "old man." The widow was, therefore, mother to her husband's father, and consequently grandmother to her own husband. They had a son, to whom she was great-grandmother. Now, as the son of a great-grandmother must be either a grandfather or a great uncle, this boy was one or the other. He was his own grandfather.—Medical Classics.

A Good Appetite.

Is essential to good health; but a this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs, and the weakening effect of the changing season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion, and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept 16.—Yesterday morning at the stone quarters just above here, while some twelve laborers were engaged in opening cans of powder with chisels, the powder became ignited and a fearful explosion occurred, killing Pat Delaney and Pat Moran instantly. Four others were fearfully burned and thrown a considerable distance.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and and Lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are 50c and $1.

The deficit in the public income of Turkey this year is estimated at about $10,000,000.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health. Free from alcohol and opium; composed of expensive herbs and roots, with fine, delicate flavoring.

Could some old Roman slip from his marble sarcophagus after his two thousand year nap, and after donning his toga drop into Adam Forepaugh's Great Arena, he would rub his sleepy eyes and conclude that the Chariot races of his day were utter foolishness compared to those of to-day. EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 17.—Robt. Laughlin, superintendent of the Saginaw Tuscola and Huron railway, tendered his resignation Saturday; the same to take effect Sept. 30. Informal talk as to his probable successor brought prominently forward the name of Chas. M. Rice, auditor and general freight and passenger agent of the road, a young man who has worked up from an inferior position and in whom unlimited confidence had been placed.

Yesterday morning, realizing that the change contemplated would result in the election of another auditor and an exposure of his books, Rice confessed to a defalcation of $8,000.

Rice gives no explanation of his conduct only admitting he needed the money and took it, expecting to return it in the future. He has a wife and one child, and is not extravagant in his habits.

CAN'T BE A BRIGAND.

Mrs. Jessie Bond Fails to Secure a Position in "The Brigand Company"—Her Dinners to the "Profession."

THE SENTINEL yesterday gave considerable space to Mrs. Hugh McCullough Bond. To-day it gives a new chapter in her theatrical career, and we let the New York World tell the story in its own way:

Miss Lillian Russell ordered a carriage at the Hotel Metropole yesterday afternoon and was driven to the Grand Central depot, whither a vast amount of theatrical baggage had preceded her. She took the 4 o'clock train for Boston, and at about the same hour the other members of "The Brigands" company embarked on a Fall River boat for the same place. Neither on the Boston boat nor on the Boston train was there any one of the name of Bond who was going on the road with "The Brigands" company in the expectation of eventually superseding Miss Russell.

But in room 25, Hotel Metropole, which she has occupied with her husband for ten days past, was Mrs. Jessie Hanna Bond, who was quoted in a morning paper yesterday as saying that she was going to Boston as a member of Mr. Aronson's company.

In answer to the card of a World reporter, she begged to be excused. At least half a dozen other newspaper representatives got the same answer. A note addressed to Mr. Hugh McCulloch Bond, her husband, was answered as follows:

"I have nothing whatever to say in regard to the matter."

At the Casino "The Drum Major" was in rehearsal. Between the acts Charles Barton, business manager for Mr. Aronson, told as much as he knew, or was willing to tell, regarding the difference of opinion which seems to exist between the Casino management and Mrs. Bond:

"Mrs. Bond has never been engaged by Mr. Aronson," he said. "She certainly is not going to play Miss Russell's part in 'The Brigands.' I have telegraphed to our agent at Boston to deny the story if it is published there, and that if these people appear at the theater to refuse them admission except on the presentation of tickets."

Mr. Barton said some other things, which gave the impression that an account from Mrs. Bond's own lips of her experiences since she came here a year ago to get on the stage would not be without interest. It appears that one day several months ago Mrs. Bond called at the Casino, made known her desire to go on the stage and asked to have her voice tried. Her voice was tried. She was not given an engagement on the spot to play a principal part, but a gentleman in the office very obligingly took down her name and address. Mrs. Bond saw him write it in a large book; but she did not know that that book contained what professionals excerate as the "suspense list."

Mrs. Bond was very anxious to go upon the stage. She studied and practised several hours every day, and cultivated the friendship of prominent members of the profession. She took a flat at No. 229 West Forty-third street, on the floor above that occupied by Miss Russell, and the impression became prevalent in the neighborhood that when Mrs. Bond made her debut Miss Russell would thereafter languish in the deep shade. Well known profession people were frequent visitors at the flat of Mrs. Bond and her husband. It is understood that their wines were excellent and their cook above reproach. Sometimes the prominent professionals reciprocated by contributing a box at the opera.

Mrs. Bond's aspirations did not become oppressive to the Casino management until, as the end of "The Brigand's" run approached, people began to inquire, as they bought their tickets at the box office, whether this was the night of Mrs. Bond's first appearance in Miss Russell's part. The situation became still more serious when it was reported to the Casino management that Mrs. Bond had purchased several trunks full of wigs and other things needed by shapely prime donne.

At the Hotel Metropole Mr. and Mrs. Bond are much respected. Mrs. Bond draws large checks at the Fifth Avenue bank, and pays all bills promptly.

"It is true," said the clerk, "that they have a good many friends in the theatrical profession who call on them frequently, but sometimes stop here. They can't be going to Boston to-day, for they haven't given up their room nor made any preparation to leave. Perhaps they are playing a big joke on Aronson."

Other attaches of the hotel have understood all along that Mrs. Bond was an actress, who was to join her company some time in September. Her expectations in regard to the Casino company have been the subject of comment among professional people for some time, but this will probably inform the lady for the first time that enrollment on the "suspense list" is not equivalent to an engagement.

THERE is a stone elephant in Inyo County, California. The rock that has taken the form of an elephant is a dark gray granite that is almost the color of the skin of an elephant. The first travelers in California, it is said, on catching sight of it, thought that they had found a petrified mastodon. A Pinte Indian, on being asked if he had ever seen the "stone elephant," replied, "Yash, me see him many year 'go. Long time Injun no sabe him; now see him all same in big show up Virginy City."

FATHER HAYDEN'S custom of blowing out the gas was reversed by a girl brought up in London when she first went out to service. TUESDAY, SEPT. 17, 1889.

THIS is overcast weather.

THE king of Holland is seriously ill.

WHO will be commissioner of pensions?

THE summer has only three more days to live.

FORT WAYNE is to have another Sunday newspaper.

NATURAL gas will be the fuel of the future in Fort Wayne.

JOHN M. LANGSTON, the eloquent colored politician of Virginia, is going to Ohio to stump the state for Foraker.

THE successor of Hon. S. S. Cox in congress from the New York district, it is thought, will be Daniel Dougherty, Carl Schurz or Ex-mayor Hewitt.

FORT WAYNE bobs up with a sensation pretty often. Our newspaper reporters are enterprising and hunt the news. They do not wait for the news to hunt them.

THE portraits of Generals Grant, Sherman, and Sheridan, which were painted by direction of Mr. George W. Childs for the United States military academy, will be formally transferred to that institution October 3.

MRS. HELEN M. GOUGAR remarks that there is not a newspaper in this country to-day that supports high license that is not bribed to do so by the National Liquor league. Helen seems to think that the opinions of editors are purchasable.

THERE are seven drug stores in Kokomo, and the proprietors have entered into an agreement by which only one of the number remains open Sunday, each taking its turn in this respect. By this method the employes are only on duty one Sunday out of seven.

THE Mackie-Falker escapade is one that has a moral, but moralizing seems to do little good. People see the mistakes of others almost every day and yet they rush headlong into them to repent their folly afterwards. Two lives blighted and other hearts wrung with sorrow—this is the result of the scandal.

THE state board of mine examiners has finished its work and given certificates of competency to the following persons: Walter Rutledge, of Alton; James Freer, of Peoria; Quinton Clark, of Braidwood; James Taylor, of Ashley; Thomas Hudson, of Galva; John Keay, of LaSalle, and Elisha Beadle, of Kewanee. The five persons named will be recommended for mine inspectors.

WHEN Sunset Cox was in Detroit the latter part of June he gave a bright, entertaining talk, in which he said: "My health is good again, and now that I am out of ambitious politics I intend to enjoy life and live to be old. I can't wear out. There is no sense in rushing to your grave, and I propose to take my time to it." He then seemed in the best of spirits and chaffed sarcastically at his confreres in congress as if he expected them to shorten their lives by overexertion while he was growing old gracefully, "I am now studying machinery," he said: "the great industrial and mechanical progress of to-day has a wonderful fascination for me."

THE American brewers have projected a gigantic syndicate or pool to protect themselves against the encroachments of the English beer syndicate. Mr. Charles Merkel, of New York, vice president of the Kraus-Merkel Malting company, in an interview said: "There will be formed a gigantic stock company that will buy up or control all the more important breweries of the country. Its capital stock will be $100,000,000. The brewers of St. Louis have already organized to this end, and are ready to join the combine. The important brewing centers, New York, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, New Orleans and Kansas City, will be visited and brought into the scheme."

BREAKY EUROPE.

Fred Raine, lately consul-general at Berlin, who has recently returned from Europe, in speaking of affairs on the continent, said that he does not think a war imminent, but believes that the smaller spark may at any moment cause a disastrous conflagration. The conservatives of France and Germany do not desire war, he say, but Russia's ambition and pan-Slavistic agitation may lead to it at any moment. Mr. Raine entertains the opinion that France and Germany should be friends instead of enemies, as he considers Russia and the semi-barbarian elements under the scepter of the czar the dangerous antagonists of both. With the Russians war means the ascendency of autocratic ideas, the death knell of republicanism and constitutional government. The thinking men of France are not blind to the objects of Russia, and show but little inclination to encourage the cry of revenge against Germany, rather believing that sooner or later something may turn up to establish an entente cordiale between Germany and France.

Mr. Raine fears that the immense war preparations of all Europe, and the tremendous cost of armament and consequent taxation may lead to exhaustion and an appeal to arms precipitating war against the wishes of all true friends of progress and civilization.

FUN AT THE FAIR.

Library Hall Event Attracting Big Crowds and the Interest Increases.

The Library hall fair had a splendid patronage last night, notwithstanding it was "Blue" Monday.

There is on exhibition at the rosary table a piece of art obtained by Father Lang at Trieste, Austria, during his late visit in Europe.

The hall will be thrown open to the school children to-morrow afternoon. The Mandolin orchestra will be there and it will be a treat for the children.

The children from St. Vincent's orphan asylum will attend by special invitation.

The booths all did a thriving business.

Owing to the great amount of work devolving on the voting committee, the following gentleman have been added: Charles Rosenheimer, John Bratvan, Capt. J. H. Bohan, A. F. Glutting, L. Gocke and T. Hunlihan, who at once entered upon their duties.

The public school children are invited to attend a special concert Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Rudolph Bensman holding No. 48, drew a basket of fruit.

Mr. Charles Rosenheimer, our clever city treasurer, is doing honors on the voting committee.

Sig. E. Garci with the violin, and Sig. E. Calamara with the guitar, of the orchestra, played some difficult selections and were heartily applauded.

Mrs. H. S. Hanod drew an elegant basket of flowers, holding No. 11.

A contest for a gold watch opened last night with the following contestants: Mary Connors, Agnes Baker, Alice Furste, Maggie Cranston, Katy O'Brien, Maggie Gaffney and Ella Donahue. This contest will close Monday evening at 11 o'clock.

The contest for the road wagon closed last night as follows: Charles Hilton, 141; Rudolph Bensman, 16; F. M. Dunham, 35; Barney Fitzpatrick, 314; Frank Tyrell, 55.

Mr. Will McKinnie, holding No. 28, drew an imported bust, representing winter, valued at $25, from the rosary tables.

The mandolin orchestra won more laurels. Master Harry Diamond, the boy musician, played some very difficult selections on the violin, and so enraptured the audience that while he was playing you could hear a pin drop on the floor. He was accompanied on the piano by Mr. George Jacobs, of the City band. This novel orchestra will be heard all of this week.

The contest for the road wagon will close Saturday evening.

The children of St. Vincent's Orphan asylum attended the matinee this afternoon.

THERE is not near so much British money going into American breweries as might be supposed. The object of the whole thing is a trap to draw in American capital. Our foreign neighbors in a game of this kind are quite as shrewd as the heathen Chinese in a game of cards. Let them alone and Americans will beat them all the time in the beer business.

Economy and strength are peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Engineer Chas. Friese, of Ruperts Beer Brewery, while trying to repair some machinery while in motion, last night, was caught in the crank and crushed to death before he could be rescued by his companions.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

SCANLAN'S NEW PLAY.

The First Presentation in the City of Myles Aroon by the Famous Boltimacker.

Scanlan, with his laughing eyes, his pleasant smile and good nature will present his new play at the Temple tonight. The play is original in theme and treatment, developing Mr. Scanlan's capabilities for illustrating a noble minded and heroic son of the Emerald Isle, with natural vocal attainments of the loftiest and most sentimental type. The scene is laid in County Westmeath, Ireland, at the present day; the hero is a merry and worthy young Irish gardener, and the plot brings on the efforts of his gardener, Myles Aroon, to clear his character of a stain which has been cast upon it by an unscrupulous Irish adventurer. In the jolly and genial Myles, with his light-hearted gayety and steady flow of wit, Mr. Scanlan found a congenial representation. He introduces many novelties in the way of business, and sings the following new songs which he composed for this play: "Swing Song," "You and I, Love," "My Maggie," and "Oh, Live, My Love, Oh Live." He also gives, by particular request, Sam Lover's Irish comic ditty, "Tis a Bit of a Thing," and his own "Peek-a-Boo."

The play is set with new, beautiful and elaborate scenery, painted by Charles Witham. One set showing the illuminated interior of a conservatory, with parlors and a fountain of real water, is especially realistic.

A Secret

of good health is found in the regular movement of the bowels and perfect action of the liver. These organs were intended by nature to remove from the system all impurities. If you are constipated you offer a "standing invitation" to a whole family of diseases and irregularities which will surely be "accepted," and you will have guests unwelcome and determined. All these unpleasant conditions may be averted by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Powerful for the effectual regulation of the bowels and liver, establishing a healthy action of the entire wonderful organism with which we are crested.

The original cost of the right-of-way of the Mount Washington Incline railroad—a road that has proved to be a gold mine to its owners—was only $90.

"I WANT WORK."

An Insane Man Found Near the Wabash Track With a Card Bearing These Words—Echoes of the Hall.

For nearly a week passengers on the Wabash have noticed an illy-clad man wandering in the woods along the railroad track between Whitehouse and Neapolis, but thinking he was a tramp, no attention was paid to him, until Sunday he was seen lying in a fence corner.

A party of men went out to him and found him nearly frozen and famished, gnawing on an ear of corn that he had almost shelled with his teeth. He was taken to Toledo and placed in the jail, where by careful nursing he is recovering, but is still very weak. He was quite violent at first, but rests easier now. He was very poorly clad in ragged clothes, and bore a card in his hand on which was written, "I want work."

He is about forty-five years of age, and gives his name as Martin Fee. He makes conflicting statements as to his home, claiming Austin, Texas, Kendallville, Ind., and other places. He will speak only at intervals, but will write anything he is asked, and does so in a beautiful Spencerian hand. He says he is a bookkeeper, and his soft hands are evidence that he has never labored for a living. Sheriff Harbeck is making an effort to find out where he belongs, and thinks it likely he has escaped from some asylum and wandered where he was found.

GOSSIP OF THE DAY.

The Pittsburg pay-car is in the city to-day.

Thursday is Wabash payday and Saturday payday at the Electric Light works.

William Lerch, machinist at the Bass works, is now occupying his new home on Harmer street.

Councilman Gordon, baggagemaster at the Pittsburg depot, is at Warsaw attending the fat stock show.

Foreman J. J. Stier, of the Bass works, is off duty on account of the death of his little daughter.

Harry Hayes, machinist at the Bass works, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to set up an engine for his firm.

F. P. Copper, traveling passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was in the city last evening.

Col. Dick Thompson, passenger agent of the Wabash, has returned from St. Louis, where he was attending the great exposition.

General Manager G. W. Saul, General Freight Agent Wikel, and General Ticket Agent Fisher made a tour over the Muncie yesterday.

The Fort Wayne Furniture company has struck it rich in a new combination folding bed, the patent of which has been recently acquired.

Vice-president J. D. Olds, Capt. Ferd Boltz and Foreman William Smith, of the Olds wheel works, went to Petoskey this afternoon for a several day's fish.

The S. M. Foster factory is adding several new lines of manufacture to its business, among which are men's pants, overalls, firemen's jackets, flannel shirts, etc.

The Wabash is selling reduced rate tickets to Huntington, until the 21st, on account of the fair in progress there, and is also giving excursion rates to Detroit until the 27th on account of the International exposition.

The Pennsylvania company on Saturday completed the fine railroad bridge over the Ohio river at Steubenville. The bridge consists of seven open spans, each 232 feet long, and one channel span 312 feet long, making the bridge 1,936 feet in length from abutment to abutment.

The shops of the Pennsylvania company, at Altoona, in the month of August, turned out more work than in any month since they were established. Over 4,000 cars were rebuilt, and 500 new ones turned out, and this month work is being pushed to the utmost capacity of the shops.

It is stated in Pittsburg railway circles that J. N. McCullough, first vice president of the Pensylvania company, will be elected a director of the Pennsylvania road to fill a vacancy caused by the death of William Thaw. This has been decided upon, and it is stated by those high in railroad authority that Mr. McCullough will accept.

E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg and of the Vandalia, has undertaken to bring about a conference of the general passenger agents of lines east of the Missouri river, with a view to the formation of an association, organized on such a basis that every important line will have a representative member. The associations are too numerous now, and the plans on which they are operated too varied to do effective work, especially in the fixing and maintaining of rates. A number of general managers and general passenger agents have communicated with Mr. Ford in reference to the matter, and all favor the proposition.

WESTERN RAILROADING.

"Speedwell!" yelled the Western Railway Superintendent to his assistant, "I see by these dispatches that the overland flyer No. 2 is snow-bound at North Fork."

"Yes, sir" was the brisk reply, "I've ordered out the snow-plows."

"Very good. Telegraph the crew that as soon as they open the road I want to carry a train load of snow to South Pass and dump it on the track. The rails there are melting with heat."—New York Weekly.

THE BOY WHO WAS HIS OWN GRANDFATHER.

There was a widow and her daughter-in-law, and a man and his son. The widow married the son, and the daughter married the "old man." The widow was, therefore, mother to her husband's father, and consequently grandmother to her own husband. They had a son, to whom she was great-grandmother. Now, as the son of a great-grandmother must be either a grandfather or a great uncle, this boy was one or the other. He was his own grandfather.—Medical Classics.

A Good Appetite.

Is essential to good health; but a this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs, and the weakening effect of the changing season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion, and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept 16.—Yesterday morning at the stone quarters just above here, while some twelve laborers were engaged in opening cans of powder with chisels, the powder became ignited and a fearful explosion occurred, killing Pat Delaney and Pat Moran instantly. Four others were fearfully burned and thrown a considerable distance.

News About Town.

It is the current report about town that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and and Lungs is making some remarkable cures with people who are troubled with Coughs, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Any druggist will give you a trial bottle free of cost. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure. The large bottles are 50c and $1.

The deficit in the public income of Turkey this year is estimated at about $10,000,000.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them!

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

Free from alcohol and opium; composed of expensive herbs and roots, with fine, delicate flavoring.

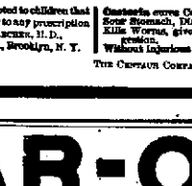
TAR-OID

NATURE HAS NO BETTER REMEDY



Than this New Compound of Tar for Wounds, Burns, Sores, Piles, Salt Rheum, Eczema, and Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Bronchitis, and Consumption.

TAR-OID must not be confounded with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Tar is the whole thing. Diseases are caused by impure blood, which is not true. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

TAR-OID is a sure cure for piles. It never fails. We warrant a cure or refund the money. It gives immediate relief. It is perfectly safe, yet powerful in its action.
